“ My heart goes out to your family. I am so sorry for your loss. What pain hurts worse than the pain of losing someone that you love? Though the pain you're feeling must seem unbearable, please remember that you are not alone. Psalms 46:1 says, "God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." Pray to Him for strength. Weep to Him when there are no words. One of the poets of the Bible said at Psalms 56:8, "You keep track of my wandering. Do collect my tears in your skin bottle." You see, God understands your pain and He cares for you very much (1 Peter 5:7). And He will really help you get through this difficult time (Isaiah 41:10).

“ Sandra, I'm so sorry for the loss of your mother, she was some lady, and we all will miss her. You and your family was so good to help out with her during the last years of her life, and I know you will have wonderful memories, of all the times you spend with her. Now we know she in no more pain, and went to her new home to be in peace. My heart and prayers, go out to you and the family and sorry I want be with you except in your heart during the time you say good-bye. God Bless You All;
