“ My family had the joy, pleasure and honor of living a few houses down from Mrs Betty and her late husband Bob. My stepdaughter & her family lived next door and were always talking about how sweet they were and so much help to them when they first moved in. I know they will be missed by many, including the Binder & Cox families. Rest in peace Mama Betty, you're reunited with your Bob forever & always. My thoughts, love & condolences to the family.

“ I met Betty through my sister Kelly. You could feel the spirit of God around her and knew you were in good places! May God be with the family, surrounding them with love, peace and fresh remembrances of the good memories.

“ I was very blessed to have such a kind, loving, Christian mother, “Mama Betty”. She lived by example and I always wanted to be just like her when I grew up. Many of my friends loved her, calling her mama too. It was a pleasure and honor when the need came for Pat & I to care give for her and dad. We quickly learned we needed help and want to thank the family, caregivers and all that loved her and helped with her care. It was hard to see the effects and decline of Alzheimer’s but we tried our best to keep her happy and have fun, as she had a very silly side, as I have seen in others in the family, not mentioning any names... When we were kids, I remember times where we would be laughing so hard and so tickled, she would have to pull over on the side of the road, unable to drive momentarily. Or we would dress up silly or for a play and have skits or do silly things and have fun. We were so rich with love and happiness. That’s all that really matters. Your relationship with Christ and others. Mom had a very kind heart. Please carry her kindness with you as you leave today, pass it forward to everyone you care about and all you meet. It will come back to you and you will be blessed and a blessing to others, like Mama Betty was. She is in her heavenly home now, with our dad, Mr. Bob and we will miss her, like we miss dad, but we will remember her love and kindness every day. I know without a doubt Mama Betty was escorted to heaven by Angels and God and Jesus welcomed her with open arms saying: Well done my good and faithful servant.

Rest in his love Mama Betty; until we meet again..... Love Pat & Darlene

Matthew 22:37-39 ESV

And he said to him, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

Isaiah 40:31 ESV

But they who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint.
