“ Betty McDevitt was such a strong woman I was lucky enough to meet her 15 years ago when Sean and I started dating. Now married and 15 years later I was able to have another woman I called grandma Betty she always made me smile, I enjoyed our conversations we had and her presence . Although, we wasn't able to see her as often due to the fact of her living in Atlanta we still communicated over the phone and a couple of trips to visit her. Betty recently moved to Georgia and we were able to visit her more often, She was able to meet her great grand son Walker which they both adored each other and we enjoyed the one on one time we had with her while she was here with us. Although it's bitter sweet she has been taken from us we know she lived a great wonderful life and is rejoicing in heaven, seeing her husband and other lost loved ones. We will forever miss her but smile as we know what a great life she lived. Sean, Hannah and Walker we will always love you.

“ My Great Grandmother, Betty McDevitt, was a very special person. If I could describe her with one word, it would have to be strong. Unfortunately she suffered from Dementia. Although she was robbed of so much, one thing is for sure. My grandmother never let this disease get her spirits down. I'm so thankful I was able to spend so much time with her, learn from her, and honestly have her as a friend. Grandma Betty, you have so many who loved and cared for you. In our hearts always.

“ It was a true experience to meet Betty the 2 times I did. First her sons teaching her about the computer I never knew if ever used it. The most rememberable I had taken Marilyn up to see her mom. She made sure we stayed in separate rooms she stood up for Her Christian values and ruled the house. I never was much for breakfast. Always got up at 6am Betty made sure I ate then again when Marilyn got up. I loved coffee but not so hot the cup would burn my hands if i set it down Betty put it in the microwave i wonder for how long it was hot.
Betty took to the garage and showed me all posters and explained each one where they got them who each one was.
Never new Mr Mcdevitt Betty made sure I knew who He was.
And she adored all Her children and grandchildren.
You all were truly blessed to have such a loving and caring mother.
