“ I have known Roddy and Betty most of my life. I have always admired their faithfulness to the Lord, family and friends over the years. Even though we rarely met over the last several years I always kept up with them through their relatives and friends in the Seneca area where they both grew up. May the Lord sustain each of you family members as you grieve the passing of a wife, mom, grandmother and great grandmother. We bought the house we have lived in for 55 years in November from Betty's dad, Mr. Paul Scroggs.
