“ *I was privileged to visit Nanny and Pop with my granddaughter Jess and our mutual great grandchildren Kinslee and Morgan. We were graciously greeted with a smile and warm conversation. We walked the isle together at Dustin and Jess wedding. I attended Ebaneezer Baptist Church with the family on special occasions. Nanny and Pop are missed but I look forward to seeing them again as well as Randal and Shiela "When we all get together " over there!
My prayers and condolences reach out to family and friends.

“ I have known Miss Betty since I was just a young girl. We lived right down the road from her and her precious husband in Harbins. My twin sister married her nephew, Jack Still, after we graduated from high school. I went to church with her and her precious husband and grew up with her precious, sweet, handsome sons, Randall and Allen. Miss Betty (as we called her) and her husband, Bernard, were always the sweetest, kindest, most caring people I have ever known. Every time I would see them, they would always be together and they would tell me how sweet and pretty I was and that they loved me and I always told them how much I loved them and appreciated them. In fact, the last time I saw them was at the funeral home when Randall passed and they said those same identical words to me that day. Those words meant so much to me and they helped to mold my life because I knew they meant every word they said to me and I knew in my heart that I had two people in the world that truly did love me. I have held them dear and close in my heart everyday of my life. I know she is in heaven with her precious, beloved husband and son and I know they are rejoicing together. I pray I will see them all again someday and I pray for her beloved, caring, sweet son that is left, Allen. My heart goes out to you Allen and I know how much you love your mother and I thank God that she had you as her son who loved her and who took care of her until she took her last breath here on earth. I thank your precious wife as well for everything she did for your mother. May she rest in peace with her Lord and Savior.

“ Mrs. Betty was a wonderful woman. She loved her family so much and joyed in her grandchildren coming to see her. Betty worried over things that she wanted to be right and always had a kind word for all. I will always cherish she and Bernard when I returned from Missouri and having chicken soup with them and remembering the good times. They were always there for me as a neighbor, cousin, family and friend. She cried many times losing her son and daughter in law and missing them so much. I admired Betty in her talents and every Christmas remember the chocolate covered ritz crackers she would make. Bernard always brought me a bag to the house. It meant so much to me. God gave her the strength to see her bury Bernard and now he has taken her to be with him in heaven. I know she is so happy to see him and Randall. Rest in peace Betty, you deserve the best.
