“ Betty and I met 24 years ago when I was contemplating moving to Decatur. We ended up living in the same condo complex for many years. Have many fond memories of her and Pat. She was always there for me as a wonderful neighbor and friend. Rest in peace, Betty. You will be missed.

“ I will miss Betty very much. We were friends from work and kept in touch after we both retired. One of the things we used to do was to visit the zoo together. Betty had been a science teacher and I was a volunteer at the zoo. She was a wise and witty person. I always enjoyed spending time with her.
