“ I will always remember my Aunt Beverly for her beautiful dazzling smile. I remember staying with her when my parents went out of town on a cruise. I remember us crying and hugging, hiding in the bathroom at my grandmother's (her mother's) wake. I'll never forget the support and beautiful gifts she sent when my children were born. I will forever cherish the memories I have of Aunt Bev.

I'll never forget Beverly, her smile and her great laugh. When we moved to Georgia she took Lynn and I in. Loved her a lot. Sue.

My beautiful sister. Like a mom to me. So losing her is losing my mom again. I still am waiting to wake up from this cruel dream.
