Doodsie, your Mom was a remarkable Lady, always had a smile on her face. We hope the coming days will bring you comfort, give you peace and help you draw strength from the caring hearts around you. May Lord Krishna grant her soul a restful place. You have her wonderful memories to look back upon, at times it will bring laughter, at times tears, however, you have to be Thankful that you were Blessed to have had the opportunity of spending time with her in GA.

“ Auntie Baby you were always a jolly & Merry. The smile was always there no matter if its a bad day. You never make anyone knows if your day was bad. You were always soft a spoken woman. You were always closed to my mother. I hope you both will continue the same relationship as you are on your journey to join her and your other friends and family. May your journey to your final destination be safe into the hands of the devine Mother Durga. R I P
