“ Gone too soon, old friend. I've moved to Georgia... we could of "hung out" some more. You were a great guy, my best friend back in the old days. We played baseball, basketball, re-shingled a few houses, towed a few junkers. Everything always with smiles and laughter. Went and saw a movie.... later that night (2 in the morning actually) you called and in your best "Clint Eastwood" voice said solemnly "Play Misty for Me"!!! lol We loved that movie. So long buddy...

“ Bill was such a good friend to me when my son Tommy was sick, he had bleeding in his brain. Bill was one of the few that came to visit him in hospital, and he held him, rocked him and sang to him. He even helped me feed him which was a 2 person operation, for one had to rub his throat to get him to swallow and one had to work on getting his mouth open. To tell you how much Bill loved Tommy, when I called to tell him Tommy had died, he wept and could not talk. I will never forget Bill for all he had done. Most young people have a lot better things to do than what Bill did. People that come out when bad things happen you never forget. As a result, though I do not know all in family, I will keep you all in my prayers.

“ Bill and I hung out together as kids. It was a real joy to be friends with my buddy Bill and along with being tall and good looking (made me jealous) he had a really funning sense of humor. We did some silly things together and laughed together a lot. I'll always remember Bill that way. My sincere condolence and prayers to the family.
