I met Mr. Jefferson only once but I will never forget him. As I looked through the wonderful family photographs that are a part of this memorial tribute to this fine man, I noticed something. Mr. Jefferson was a serious man who took all of his myriad responsibilities seriously. In most of the photos he wears a serious look. He has the look of a man who knows what has to be done and knows he is the one who can do it. I saw a different look when his daughter, my dear, dear friend Debra proudly introduced me to her father many years ago. He had the most beautiful smile whenever his gaze fell upon Debra. It was such a warm, tender and loving smile. I will never forget the smile a loving father had for his beautiful daughter. It was something to see. I am sorry for the Jefferson family's loss and the loss of that smile and all of the treasures he gave to his family and to the world. Please let me know what I can do.

This is a beautiful photographic tribute to "Jeff," as Uncle Pig has always called him. It shows how special he was as a husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather to his family. It is also wonderful to see the tribute to him from the Apollo program, and to realize his contributions to science. He is a loss to our family and will be greatly missed. Much love to his family, from Uncle Pig and Bonny.
