“ I'm so Sorry to hear about Wayne. I have a few fond memories of Wayne, as I'm sure so many do. I remember as a young boy growing up in the country, there were two guys came up on motorcycles. They started doing doughnuts in a dirt field on their scooters right across from our house. I had never seen anything like this in my life. But I knew immediately I loved Bikes & I Had to Learn to Ride one Like Them!!!. Hell-I Loved Them Too-Wesley Wilson & Wayne McHugh! Wesley had a 1971-1972 Honda CL175 Scrambler. Wayne had CT90Trail. Wesley & Wayne Highly Inspired my never ending love to ride streetbikes, dirtbikes, motocross back in around 1973. My Dad bought me my 1973 Yamaha 100. Wayne got him a Yamaha 175 later on. Wesley got a 1973 Honda 500-4 Then in 1976 the First Honda GL1000 GoldWing. I Love Those Precious Memories-But You Will Never Replace These Hog Mountain Warriors!!! RIP Wayne McHugh, & Ride On Brother...
