“ Katy, Mike, Kenneth, Charles, & Family,
The irony of love is that in our loss, the more we loved, the more pain we have when separation comes. Please know that my prayers and heart are with you. These are the times that only GOD can give the comfort that surpasses all understanding. Just know that your friends are loving you and praying with you. My heart is so sad for the three of you. Your mom was the most beautiful, kind, loving person that I have even known. She was a true angel who walked among us. I will treasure my memories of her kindness and love forever. Hold strong to her memories. She was so proud of all three of you.
