“ So sorry to hear of your loss. I met Mrs. Chandler once when I dropped by to visit with one of my aviation mentors, her knowledgeable husband, "C.L." Now I know where C.L found his guidance and I know now he is providing the same to her as she joins him where he was happiest - in the sky.##imported-begin##Bob Rogers##imported-end##

“ Our precious Sibyl, no one could ever have a more precious sister. We never saw you "down" for very long. You always had that sweet smile, and I can still hear that wonderful laugh of yours even now! At our church Christmas Musical, last night, I thought of you when our director told the story, that you told us, about the lady who was in such distress after her husband's passing, that she asked the singer to sing "Jingle Bells." Well, the man thought it strange but did the best he could, slowing it down and putting a lot of feeling into it. After the funeral, the lady apologized to him and said, "I really meant for you to sing "When They Ring Those Golden Bells." I know you're rejoicing now, more than we can imagine. I'm rejoicing that you're finally home! Love you forever...##imported-begin##Denise Westmoreland##imported-end##

“ Dear Pastor Moore and family,
My heart aches for each of you as you must say farewell to another loved one this year. But I rejoice with you that she is now with her Lord and Savior and we WILL see all of those who have gone ahead. You will all be very close in prayer. With much love and prayers,
Miss Jerry
