“ Ms. Haygood, James & Kerry,

There are no words to be said that would take away your pain at this time. Mr. Haygood was a very sweet man and I'm thankful he is no longer suffering. I know God's grace is sufficient at a difficult time like this. Praying for all of you today and the coming days as you adjust to a new life without your sweet husband and father.

Blessings,

“ Wetona, James & Kerry - I was saddened to hear of your loss. My memories of Boyd are all funny and I don't remember a time when he wasn't smiling. Take comfort in knowing he is well...no more physical weaknesses or pains. I'm confident he's smiling more than ever before. God Bless you all with his comfort and care.##imported-begin##Tracy Towe Wiegman##imported-end##

“ It is always difficult to lose someone we love. Yet, Psalm 34:18 says, "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; and those crushed in spirit he saves." What a comfort it is to know we can lean on God, so to speak, in order to receive comfort and gain hope for a brighter future. In fact, the time is not far off when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." (John 5:28) By all means, let these scriptures and more found in the Holy Bible comfort you and your family during this difficult time.

Sincerely,

R. Ampey

“ So sorry to learn of the death of Boyd. I had lost contact or location of Wetona and Boyd after you left Marietta where he was pharmacist I believe just off Power Springs Road. We played together with his sisters and Jimmy when I was very little down in the field and creek where they lived nearby. Just read the obit in the Marietta Daily Journal and will have your family in our prayers.
Elizabeth, my sister, asked me to offer her condolences also.##imported-begin##Carol Dickerson Dunbar##imported-end##
