“ To my long life partner in crime, had your back if she liked you. Lord at the weekends spent riding the roads, circling Dairy Queen in Doraville. We would laugh & cry a lot together. She was like a sister so as was her brother Ronnie. Jennifer was a little prissy & high classed but one sweet woman after you got to know her. The football games were unreal with her there with you. Class of 1970 @ NHS truly lost a girl that had a personality & heart of gold. I can still hear her.... MURRY what cha doin? Or “ well I’ll be damn” . My childhood, school days were blessed by being her friend. Love ya girl! I will see you later ❤️

“ I ran into Brenda in Clayton, Georgia at Osage Farms, some time back. She was buying fresh corn and so was I. We talked a little bit but it wasn't enough so I gave her my number and she called me the next morning about 10 am. She asked what I was doing, and I told her drinking coffee, gettin' stirred around gettin' ready to start on that corn. She said, "Well, I finished my corn about 7:30, then I put up 10 pints of preserves, and I've scalded my tomatoes and I'm about to peel them while we're talkin'." I told her to shut up. We laughed and carried on talkin' for a long time. That's what I will always remember about Brenda is how hard she worked and always doing for others. We went way back to high school and even then, she worked hard. Brenda was a good woman and my friend. I'm so glad I knew her.
