“ I was just thinking about Brenda and thought I'd google her name. I remember her so well as my sons" bus driver. She took her job so seriously. She told me that she was the first person the kids were in contact with after they left the house and that her demeanor and her greeting set their mood for the rest of the day. She was nor just a bus driver. The bus was just a vehicle allowing her to be a positive influence on kids' lives. I never forgot that and all through adulthood my boys never forgot Mrs. T. Neither have I.

“ Dear Friend,

You will be missed. Those day's in highschool, and then after marriage and kids, we found each other in Connecticut. So many fun days of visiting with you, Ralph and the kids, and you always had an extra pot of Sauce simmering on the stove, saying you really have to stay for dinner, etc. You and Ralph were the ultimate High School sweethearts. My heart is filled with sadness for him.
