

Brett Dempsey Browder

January 17, 1963 - March 9, 2023

Brett Dempsey Browder, age 60 of Gwinnett County Georgia, passed away on Thursday, March 9, 2023. Brett was originally from Fort Payne, Alabama but called Atlanta his home since 1986. Brett was known for his huge sense of humor and awesome musical talents. He enjoyed spending time with his friends, playing rock & roll, attending music festivals, and eating Mexican food! He was an avid music lover, but his greatest sense of pride came from his two children, Eli and Lily. He is preceded in death by his parents Garland and Louise Dempsey Browder, and sister Sharon Sissom. He is survived by his son Eli and daughter-in law Bianca Browder, daughter Lily Browder, sisters Beverly Wilson and Beckey Bevel, stepmother Joan Browder and the wonderful nephews and nieces that he loved dearly and was also so very proud of! There will be a Celebration of Life Service for Brett at a later date where we will gather and exchange our stories and listen to the awesome music he wrote and performed! Tim Stewart Funeral Home, 300 Simonton Road, SW, Lawrenceville, Georgia 30046. 770-962-3100. Please sign the online guest registry at www.stewartfh.com “Brett was a best friend of mine for over 10 years. I loved our endless conversations and laughter. Besides being the funniest person I knew he had another side of him that was so generous, caring, and loving to many. He will be greatly missed. My condolences go out to his children and the rest of his family and friends. RIP Brett Browder.

“Brett was a great brother to me. He was always laughing and cracking us up. His passion for music was contagious. He loved being a father and he loved life. It's going to be a long time before this sadness lifts in this family. I know we will see him again one day. I love you baby brother.

“ I am sorry to hear of Brett’s passing. I know firsthand how sad this is for Eli, Lily and all of Brett’s family and friends. My thoughts and prayers and hugs are with you all during this time.

As Eli and Lily’s babysitter when they were babies I saw Brett every morning and he would always bring you kids in my home with a big smile and say, “ Hey Misa!” He would often stop by Burger King and grab the kids biscuits to eat because he knew how much Lily disliked eggs at my house. Lol!! He will always have a special place in my heart and sweet memories of such a kind hearted man. Love to you all! Rock on, Brett!

“ Brett was the OG Funcle if we knew he was coming to see us we would stand watching at a window or at the screen door for hours just to be held down and tickled until we were crying begging him to stop He took me to see 1989s Batman in theaters Omg I have loved Batman ever since I was 12 and he pull over on the interstate and made me drive never had driven before he said you got to go we are going to get killed as I pulled the car slowly back onto the interstate from the emergency lane he would do jobs at six flags and he would sneak us in under a sheet in the back of the work van he would park open the back look around and see if anyone was watching and say get ready and when it was clear he would throw the sheet back and say GO meet me at the front gate at close we had no cell phones back then, stops at the gas station were full of drinks and snack he would say don't spill the drink which would make me nervous so I always spilled the drink I remember a grapico on light gray interior and of course I got the "Jesus Christ what are you doing your a bunch of heatherns " talk he took us to waterfalls state parks mexican restaurants which were his favorite especially melted cheese anywhere fun and if were driving and he saw something that gave him an Ideal of fun he would stop the car and do it like at the end of a runway to have landing planes fly over so close he would hold us up and tell us to grab the plane and we were scared we might be able to because we believed him his excitement was magical and contagious he was always the center of the room and laughter was the reason he would be telling his latest crazy store usually about us kids and then his own kids or about how he would feed the homeless peoples dogs with fast food hamburgers I can't help but mention Oscar there are so many stories about that weenie dog and the epic Halloween parties and how he always had the best costumes there was always music he loved music so rock and roll was always playing in the car or at his house when my oldest was born he told me to take as many pictures of my kids as possible there can never be to many I took that religiously still today even against groaning and moaning and family saying Frankie has to have his pictures it was worth it thanks uncle Brett you were the best and I have thousands of pics of family gatherings because of you I try my best to be like you with my kids being crazy fun and in the moment with them and I too love being a Funcle just like you we are missing you but we are laughing through our tears with each and every happy funny memory of you even in hard times like this you always made us laugh You were so Loved and your a legend that will live on in our memories forever
