“ *You will always missed and are loved which you know that. The sound of your voice still echos through my mind and some how I know your everywhere and nowhere and it all hurts just the same.,,
"Sometimes in the morning, my coffee gets ice cold
And I'll burn up three cigarettes, before I have my first smoke
Miss my exit on the way to work every now and then
I always blame it on the traffic when they ask me where I've been
And in a crowded elevator, I'll start hummin' that ol' song
There's no way of knowin' when that urge will come along
I've been stuck in some meeting, looked down at my legal pad
I'd see hearts and flowers and butterflies, and I can't help but laugh"*

“ To all who loved Brett:
I may have met Brett a few times. I worked with Kinglsey and I have watched their relationship blossom. To me, he seemed to bring the best out of her and she did the same for him. Every story or memory Kingsley shared with me she was always smiling ear to ear telling me a sweet thing he did for her or her son. “ Brett was such a sweet handsome guy. He always had a big smile and a hug for you every time he saw you. I remember him singing Rosecolored glasses. I remember when he was maybe 19 or 20 singing at the Hiawasee Fair. He was called back for Saturday night show. He had the biggest smile. He was so happy. Music filled him with joy. He knew he had a wonderful family to support him. Your family are in our prayers. May God give you the peace you need in such a sad time. Love you all.
