“ I am no longer by your side, but there is no need to weep; I have left sweet recollection, I am hoping you will keep. Eternal joy and memories stay in our hearts forever, Strengthening our special bond that parting cannot sever. Now it's time to journey on, so let your faith be strong, For I am in a better place.... I am home where I belong. And if times of loneliness bring sorrow and dismay, Don't despair, for I am there... Just A Memory Away.##imported-begin##Jim and Connie Bailey##imported-end##

“ I am a work friend of Janet Stoner and I heard this news just now and wanted to reach out to the family. I didn't know Brett but I do know what an utter shock and loss you feel when you lose a loved one especially one so young. My brother lost his 24 yo son in Atlanta in 2008 very suddenly and unexpectedly. There is no greater loss one can feel than to lose a child so young. But there is no greater love you can have than the love you have for your children. And that love never ever dies or fades. You will carry that forever and that is what you will come to hold on to as you walk this journey. There are no answers and I know you want some. I send you my heartfelt love and endless prayers. God is with you and is holding you in the palm of his hand - please know that. I will let Sean know to look out for Brett and show him the ropes- they are about the same age it looks like and Sean is amazing and will ensure Brett is ok. Our wonderful beautiful boy angels to watch over us now...

Bless you all.##imported-begin##Nancy devlin##imported-end##

“ Toni and Jesse,
I love you both very much and I want you to know I will be thinking of you during this time. Brett was such a smart and creative young man and I know how much he meant to you both. He will be missed greatly but I will always remember him and how much he loved and looked after the two of you. I will miss his wit and his smile.##imported-begin##Anne Wuertz##imported-end##
