“ Mary - I am truly sorry for you and your families loss. Brian was like a big brother to me - having known him for so many years. I was constantly amazed by his musical knowledge and talents, which I so enjoyed. He always brought a smile to my face and laughter from my heart by his many stories! My life was made richer by knowing him and I am comforted that he is not hurting anymore and is forever in God's loving arms. May your faith, family and friends comfort you during this time. Love you all. Ruth Carimi Irace - Arlington, TN

“Mary, my prayer for you and your family is that God will give you strength and grace as you grieve Brian's loss from this vain world. He's now flying with the angels and another beautiful voice has been added to the Heavenly Choir. Keep your precious memories of him close in your heart and he'll be forever alive and with you always. I pray the recordings of his beautiful songs will also bring you comfort. Sending prayers and hugs.
