*Rudy and Wanda,
I'm so sorry for your loss and his children's loss. All of ours really.
There was a time when Brian and I were like brothers. I know what a good person he was. Even tho he drove yall crazy at times I know how much he was loved by yall and your entire family. He was lucky to have had such a close family. I can't be at the funeral as I'm out of state getting married but my heart is there w all of you that I spent many of my younger years with. If there is anything I can do please let me know. Love you Wanda*

My Deepest sympathy. It's still hard to believe. Knowing him all the back to Fitzgerald Field. He and my brother playing football together. Then high school. So glad he and I got to catch up with each other. Such a great guy. I know this time is hard. But my prayers are with you all.

The anniversary of Brian's death is coming up shortly. My prayers go out to the family and his children for the month of December I can't imagine Christmas without a father. I have not noticed anything on the news or in the paper about these criminals being held accountable for their actions, are there any updates in this matter. Tonya (across the street neighbor).

“ My cousin was not just a cousin to me, he was like a brother to me. He taught me how to gleek and snake like all the boys. He taught me how to kick a football over the power line. He taught me how to make people laugh and smile. I really miss him so much. I know he's looking down on me and smiling (with that beautiful smile he has) while he's saying stop crying, I'm okay. I know you are okay, but I miss you. These tears I cry is out of love and pain. Remembering the GOOD TIMES and talks we had. Boy did we have some talks. We used to stay up all night talking. I sure do miss those moments. Love you to the moon and back!!!!

Brian was a great guy and will never be forgotten. He is in the arms of God now and he will be a wonderful angel.

“ There are people who stand out in one's memory as they walk this earth and Brian was one of them. The ten years that I was apart of the Whitfield family I remember all of them as being one solid supporting happy family. No matter what seemed to happen in life to any of them they all stuck together no matter what. I remember Brian's smile...he was always full of fire for life. Laughter and good times with family and friends will be his legacy. I am so sorry from the depth of my heart for your loss. May you find comfort in the presence of those who love you and embrace the wonderful memories that still await you as you celebrate the fact that he chose you to be his family. How very blessed you were.
