“ Hello, I frequently write to many who have lost their loved ones and share some encouraging scriptures. The loss of a loved one is so heartbreaking. Here are some scriptures for you and your family. Isaiah 33:25, and 1 Corinthians 15:26. Psalms 37:10,11,29, and 72:7,8, tells us about the wonderful conditions that we will be surrounded by. I hope that these scriptures will give you and your family some comfort and assured hope for the future. If you have any questions, Please contact the local kingdom hall of Jehovah's Witnesses.##imported-begin##Felicia Pounce##imported-end##

“ Evan Was Brian's Supervisor at Harland.
He shared so many funny stories with me. I eventually had the privilege of meeting Brian and quickly knew why Evan enjoyed his company. We attended his wedding and remember how happy Brian was when his daughter arrived.

Brian and some of the other guys rode their bikes and came to visit and go to lunch after Evan's health began to decline and he retired from Harland.

Evan had a heart attack and I will never forge the many calls from Brian. After I had gone back to work, many days Evan would meet me at the door and say Guess who called me today. He was so faithful in calling. Our only regret is that we did not visit eniough.

We are in total shock and I know you are.

Our prayers are with you. His smile and love will be with us always!
What a privilage to have known such an outstanding young man. He really touched my life and I'm not sure he ever knew just how much.

Love and prayers

“ To Brian's Loved Ones...

The tragic loss of your precious son, brother, best friend and life-partner, and my cousin, will never be taken lightly nor forgotten, no matter how much time passes since that fateful accident. We cannot begin to fathom how painful it must be for you all – especially at this time. May treasured memories of Brian's larger-than-life personality continue to sustain you, individually and collectively. Please know that our hearts are with you, now and always.
