To my Mother, I want you to know that I love you. I do not want to say goodbye, but want you to know that I promise to keep the memories alive through my children and grand children. I want them to know what I have learned from you and what a great person, and mother you are, and what I have learned; to keep family as number one, to always be honest, to laugh and to love. To be kind to others, to walk softly in life and ask Jesus for help in each step that we take. The decisions we make will live forever. That Richard our youngest brother is with you and went with you in passing. I pray that Jesus will hold you and Richard in his arms. Mom I will always love you and Richard. That I will share those memories with my family. James & Patricia Ragsdale and family, Fredericksburg, VA.
