“ Dear Shirley and Grantland, It has been so long since you left Cleveland, but you still come up in conversations. We have not forgotten you. We have a lot of good memories and one of them is your Bryan. I cannot begin to tell you how sorry I am to hear of Bryan's passing. I cannot even imagine. Just praying for God's arms of comfort to wrap around you both during this time. Sending love and hugs to all the family, Linda Prince.....Cleveland, TN

“ Grantland and Shirley,
We are so sorry about Bryan. He's your baby and we know was loved by you both so much. God has his arms wrapped around him. You are both very strong people and we know that God will take care of Bryan's wife, kids and family.
Love,
David & Melanie

“ Bryan was my childhood sweetheart & friend, when the McGees lived in Cleveland, TN. We went to Westwood Baptist Church together and high school. Over the past couple of days, My mom, Anne Bell Phillips, and I have been sharing stories about Bryan and times we spent with his family. I'll always remember Bryan's sense of humor and sweet, mischievous smile. He had the kindest heart, also, and would do anything in the world for someone. Bryan will always be a great memory.

Thinking of and praying for Bryan's entire family this day.

..."We can cry with hope

We can say goodbye with hope

'Cause we know our goodbye is not the end, oh no

And we can grieve with hope

'Cause we believe with hope

(theres' a place by God's grace)

There's a place where we'll see your face again

We'll see your face again....."

“ Bryan was such a joy & blessing to work with for ten years and we all miss him dearly! I'll never forget seeing him standing in his work area or saluting me as I walked down the hall. So many fond memories of him that I will hold on to the rest of my life!

During your time of sorrow, bring your family together and not pull it apart. Realize that each person is different and will grieve in ways you may not understand. Be patient and find ways to support each other.

Matthew 5:4 – Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

I have so many fond memories of Bryan from Tomahawk Circle. Even though I was younger than him, he always had time to throw the football or play with army men. Thank God that only our physical body passes away. Mr. and Mrs. McGee, I pray the Lord comfort you and your family.

I Cor 15:52 - in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.
