Sadie was the kindest, sweetest neighbor. Loved to chat with her when I'd see her walking. Even though her house has been sold ... I'll always refer to it as "Sadie's" house. My heartfelt condolences to the family for your loss.

“ I met Sadie in 1991 shortly after I married her sister, my wife LaVerne. She was the sweetest & most kind person I have ever met beside my mother. She was not only my sister-in-law, she was my friend of 30 years. I still love her dearly & it has broken mine & my wife's heart by her passing. We are praying for her children & grandkids. We love you Sadie Phillips.

“ Mrs. Sadie Phillip was a quite but beautiful lady when I first meet her back in 1981. I was stilling attend Towers High at that time and needed a part time job to help my Mother make monthly bills or even buy groceries what even my little check could possibly do. Mrs.Phillip to a chance on me, hired me for after-school and some weekend as a cashier and I really enjoyed and was extremely Thankful to her. Stayed there for several years until I was older then tranfered to a different store location because I had gotten married and moved. Stayed there until I got on with a full time job elsewhere. However just so happens years later decided to buy my first home in Loganville, Ga and guess who my neighbor was just two door up from me YEs Mrs. Sadie Phillip what a blessing she has been over the years so sad as we age and what we go through. So sad to hear of her passing. Heaven has gained another Angel Rest In Peace Sweet Sadie Phillip You Will Truly Be Missed By So Many ♡ Cathy Taylor
