“ I met Cajun when I started working in the office at Local Union 72 many years ago, he was a great guy always made you laugh and I loved to hear him talk and tell stories. I will miss you and I know you are looking down in all of us and I hope you spread your wings and fly high.

Love always and forever and I will see you again, Christi Nichols Oliver

“ Cajun was my apprentice on the Budweiser job years ago. He was only 20yrs old. He was a great apprentice and an excellent worker and really wanted to learn about the trade. He was a natural welder from the git go. He became like a son to me. Great Union man. He made many contributions to our trade. I will miss his humor and his crazy stories. May peace be with him on his new journey. My love to all his family and friends and brothers for their love for a very special person. Bro Jack R. Vincent

“ Cajun, My Brother, My Friend and definitely one of my all time greatest people. Never a dull moment we spent together working, hunting and especially eating! You'll be missed my brother, but I'm sure you're in some great company now. Keep the grill hot, and we'll meet again one day. Love ya man, Wayno

Cajun, man what great guy !! Enjoyed getting to work on the same job with you at Zoetis. I knew that it was rough on ya but you pulled through even as cold as it was out here. There's a lot people from Local 72 that will always remember you brother. I pray that God will bless and comfort your family in the coming days !! Till we meet again in heaven Rest easy brother !!
