“ To a real man that I loved very much, he will be missed at pleasant hill baptist church. I wished I was able to spend more time with him. He was a light that shined wherever he went. He has a special place in my heart and always will, I know he is having a ball right now in heaven, running, shouting, and feeling great with a new body with no pain. We will always have you in our thoughts. See you soon. EGYPT WAS ONCE MY HOME.
