“ I just read this news. Sincerest sympathy to the family. Unfortunately, we had lost touch. Mail sent was never acknowledged - phone calls left unreturned -- not knowing the reasons stopped reaching out. All memories are good and now bittersweet....Sandra and her loving children were blessings to Carl and all who were fortunate enough to witness the sunshine they added to Carl's life (and for sure prolonged it in a loving way). Blessings and heartfelt condolences to everyone who knew and love them.

“ First of all let me tell the family how sad I am for your loss ! I love both the families ! The Harrison's and the Martins they both come from amazing families ! Carl did have a rep in school but not for the most important and best thing about him ! He probably truly saved my life once ! He is a nice , thoughtful, and caring person ! Thank you Carl !! I will never forget you ! My prayers are going up for both of these families for happiness of having him around for such a long time also for comfort strength and peace ! I love you all !!! May God continue to bless Carl's families and friends !
