“ My deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Carl Krambier. May I share some comforting thoughts from the Bible with you all? At Isaiah 26:19, it states: "Your dead ones will live.... They will rise up." Also, Jesus stated at John 5:28,29: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." What a grand hope, The Resurrection. A brief summary of this hope is located in the tract "What Hope for Dead Loved Ones?" provided by Jehovah's Witnesses. Please request a copy and examine the scriptures within. May the God of comfort grant you peace.##imported-begin##A. James##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathies to the Krambier family. I worked closely with Carl for several years in the Atlanta office at Westvaco and thought of him often over the years. I have warm, fond memories of Carl and although we lost touch, I was very sad to hear of his passing.

Warmest regards,

“ Dakota and Mr. Krambier:

I saw in the paper that your Grandfather died. I am very sorry. I know you visited them a lot and that you will miss him. Remember his smile and all the wonderful times you had together. He has taught you things that you will remember and use for a lifetime. Think of him everytime you remember and smile. And hug and kiss your grandmother often --- she will need you.

Please send me an email (Lynda_Kane@gwinnett.k12.ga.us) and let me know how you are doing this year.

With Thoughts and Prayers---

Mrs. Kane
