“ I knew Doug for many, many years. I treasure all the memories I have of working with him, and his love for music. I know that I will miss him, and it is hard to think about not seeing him here in this world, any more. I am so incredibly thankful for the last visit I had with him and Joyce. We talked, and laughed about some of the times we had shared at Modern Electric. My heart goes out to Joyce, and his children. He will be missed so much, and I will never forget Doug. God bless you...##imported-begin##Tommy Knight##imported-end##

“ Doug was my mentor in the electric supply business. I owe everything I learned about the business to him. He could be hard on me at times, but that made me appreciate him that much more. He was the first person to buy my first rib eye steak and helped me to buy my first bass guitar and amp. We both loved music and enjoyed playing. I know he will be playing music in his heavenly home. I did not get to see Doug as much as I wished I could but thought of him often. We worked hard at Modern but we also had fun. Doug always said if you can't have a little fun at work you can't be happy. He will truly be missed.##imported-begin##Mike & Marcia Wages##imported-end##
