“ Carlton, the childhood memories of your family and mine growing up together at Hydes Chapel Baptist Church will forever be etched in my mind. I will miss Wayne telling me some crazy story about something you and him had done on one of the trips he took with you. I had truly hoped that your work here on earth was not done but God had other plans. I will forever remember that infectious smile you had. Rest in peace my friend and know that you will be missed by all those who Loved you. It will not be the same without hearing Carlton and Linda. You two have been together forever just like Roselle and Wayne and BJ and Deryal.

*Love and miss you already my friend,
