I knew Carol through my mother-in-law, Betty Moran. Whenever my husband and I went to visit Betty, I would be happy to see Carol's car in her driveway because I knew we would have some laughs. She was a sweet and funny lady and we will miss her.

God blessed my old friends. Carol and Jerry were at our house every Saturday night as I was a young child, pre teen and on to my teenage years. My Mom and Daddy, AP and Juliette Bowen, always had a card game at the kitchen table. The neighborhood would come, Jerry and Carol, Willis and Virginia White, Buster and Joyce too. The big game was Rook. They are all gone now and playing Rook in Heaven I know. What I want to tell is how Carol helped me as my Daddy lay dying. I was in the original CVS in Snellville, wondering down an aisle not really there but just so sad because of Daddy. Someone hugged me from behind as I turned it was Carol. The only thing she said to me was "We are never ready but God will make us willing" . I dropped to the floor and so did she. Carol sat in the floor and held me while i cried and cried. We did not care who was around, i don't even remember but Carol soothed my soul that day by letting me know everything was as God has planned. I went home and the next night Daddy passed to Heaven. It was hard but because of Carol, God made me willing to let him go. Jerry and Carol were a part of my raising, I expect to be sitting back at that table playing Rook and laughing with them!

Michelle I am so sorry for your loss, you won't remember me but I remember your Mom and Dad as if they were right beside me now. God bless you and your family.

“ We will never forget your beautiful mom. She always had a welcome hug and sweet words. She loved Jesus and her family. She missed her husband, and often shared that with me. Now they are reunited, healed, and happy in the presence of our Savior. I hope they bump into my mom and dad on Heaven's grand dance floor! We are going to miss her. Love & prayers, the Channers

“ Glad to have many childhood into adult memories, Aunt Carol was such a blessing. She would give all us girls, Vickie, Wanda and myself the biggest wet kisses when we were very young. She would spray paint her hair at Christmas silver and wear it proudly. Carol would always talk about the great love of her life Jerry and she did have just that a GREAT LOVE. I would listen to her stories and was amazed at how happy a life they had been given. I'll always remember her love of God, family, and her tiny little poodle. Aunt Carol surprised me with the courage she had to FIGHT like a Girl with her cancer. Always will be missed, never forgotten. She is at the right hand of the Lord and I feel sure Uncle Jerry led her all the way home. Rest in peace our sweet sweet Aunt Carol.

“ Ms Carol always said “It’ll be alright” about all things in life, and we knew she was right. We will miss her, but she is with Jerry now, and through our faith in Jesus we know “It’ll be alright”. .
