“ Oh my goodness...I was so heart broken when I received an email with a link to Mother Carol's obituary. My deepest condolences to the entire family. Kim thank you so much for thinking of me during your time of bereavement to make me aware of the transitioning of Mother Carol. Mother Carol has always been so dear to me. I met her several years ago at church. When I lost my mother she was so kind and loving towards me. Even when we no longer attended the same church she would text me often to check on me and to make sure to tell me, she was thinking about me and she loved me. Her kind words were a major comfort to me. I know Kim and I both loved our mothers hard. I would tell Kim, were going to share Mother Carol and she would make it clear, that we were not going to share Mother Carol. She was her mother and my friend 😭. 🤔 I totally understood and accepted whatever I could to stay in contact with Mother Carol. I was the same way with my mother. Kim and family I pray God will continue to bless you all and give you the strength you will need during this time of bereavement. My thoughts and prayers are with you 🙏.
Much Love ❤️

“ Oh my goodness! I'm so sorry to hear this. In 1961, when her brother Donald was married to his first wife (who was my husband's sister), my maid of honor was unable to come and Carol stepped up and stood with me at my wedding. May she rest well from her labors.
Praying for all of you for comfort and peace.

“ Carol and I were the best of friend during the time we both worked for The City of Pittsburgh. I could count on her to always give me encouragement and advice. She loved that my birthday was the same as her mothers. Rest in Power, beautiful Lady and dear friend

“ When I think of Ma #2 (lol), I smile. I remember her gorgeous smile, her infectious laugh, and her blazing personality. She was so loving and giving. I remember the cakes she would surprise me with on my birthday. Never have a had a cake so good. The icing was perfect. Ma's pancakes....OMG. She had the best pancakes. Kimmy & I would ride in the back of the hatchback. We would have so much fun. I never wanted to go home. Lol We did so much stuff. She gave me unconditionally love. She treated me just like a daughter. I would get in trouble too. Lol I remember those looks. Lol Wooo-weeee We would straighten up quick. I'm so grateful & thankful God put you all so perfectly in my life. He knew what I needed. I'm so hurt that she is gone. I selfishly want some time to remind her what she meant to me. I loved her so much. I hope I can be a special, loving, devoted mom just like her. If I could see her now, I would hug her so tight and kiss her up telling her how much I loved her & thank her for all she did for me. She helped to mold me into the woman I am today. You guys will forever be my family... my sister/best friend, my big bro, my nephews, my neices... Sending love & continuous prayers. Love forever & always,

Cindy
