“ I am so sad to hear about Carol. We both worked for Gwinnett County for years. We shared the same first name and when she married Larry, we had the same last name! Ironically, my husband's name is Larry as well. We had some laughs over that.

Rest in pease, Carol

“ Pam and Paul, Just now saw Pam's post on facebook about your Mom. My heart is saddened to hear about her passing. Years ago Carol and I worked together at Gwinnett County Administration. Some of the fondest memories in my life, were with your Mom. I would have attended her services had I only known. I send my heartfelt sympathy to you and your family. Carol was a beautiful, lady inside and out.

“ To the little sisters, I have sweet memories of times we visited your family. My mom Retha grew up with your Mom, even went to school together, they enjoyed each other as friends & cousins all their lives. Carol kept me connected to that with her love for family. Sending you all Sincere Condolences, Love, Janice Chapman Wallis

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Carol's family. Me and Pam became the best of friends when we started working together. I meet Mama C and Larry and consider them my second parents. I will miss our calls, hanging at the pool and trips to Cato. It wasn't good-bye Mama C but see you later. Much love to all of the family.
