“ Carol was my supervisor when I first came to POS processing. We was so kind and most helpful. I love most about her that she was the same all the time. Even after she moved over to the project time, I would go down from time to time and visit her. She was always so proud of her family, kids and most of all that little grandson. I will miss her so much. (She was one of our 6 am team) Carol is loved you so much.

“ I have a lifetime of memories when it comes to my Aunt "Tater".

Carol to me will always be my Aunt "Tater". Not because she made the bomb tater logs (which she did), but because my love and appreciation of the potato was thanks to her. Carol was the only person that I knew who could make an entire days worth of meals all from potatoes. Breakfast - Fried Potatoes & Biscuits, Lunch - Potato Chip Sandwich, Dinner - French Fries, well... LOTS of French Fries.

When Phil, Jennifer and I were little she would let us hang out with her while she cleaned her house on Friday. She had one of those old school stereos that was a piece of furniture and she would blast the Oak Ridge Boys, plus a little Aerosmith here and there. She was a lot of fun, and would hook us up with a Happy Meal from Mc Donald's.

I think about all of our trips together over the years, to Florida, Pigeon Forge, Louisiana, South Carolina and those Friday night trips when you never knew where you would end up. Sometimes it might be a shopping trip to Wal-Mart Fort Payne, AL or visiting Randy's family in South Carolina.

Carol was spontaneous and had an infectious laugh. She liked to have a good time.

Carol's shining moment every year was December 24th. She would cook all day long and we would gather at her house for food, presents and fun. A year does not past where I don't find myself thinking about those Christmas Parties and how much fun we all had together.

“ I never knew a more caring or loving person outside of my own mother. She was there for me through several rough periods in my life and I will truly miss her. She did so much for others and always thought about others above herself. This world's loss is heavens gain. Rest in peace my dear friend and my God's comfort and love surround your family in their days to come.
