“ *To the family,
It is with deepest sympathy that I extend my condolences. This can be an extremely difficult time for any family. My hope is that you may find a measure of comfort and peace in God's Word the Bible. Psalm 34:18-Jehovah (God) is near to those that are broken at heart; And those who are crushed in spirit he saves.-New World Translation.*

Take care.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. No matter how often we see it take place we are still saddened by it. The Bible offers a for sure hope. The Bible promised in John 5:21,28,and 29. There Jesus promised the resurrection hope. Yes millions now dead will live again right here on earth, and have the prospect of remaining under peaceful paradasaic conditions. (Psalms 37:10,11,29, and 72:7,8. What a wonderful hope to look forward to.##imported-begin##FH##imported-end##

“ I met Carol years ago while visiting with Kellie. One thing that I've always remembered about Carol was that she was such a wonderful and attentive mom!

And in Christ, there is no end
So I'll hold onto Jesus with all that I have
To see you again"

“ Harold, Anna, and entire Butler and Cofer family: I too can't begin to tell you how much I have loved your families all these years. The Butlers were very much a part of my growing up years, and continue to be very special friends. Harold, Darrell and I were just talking today how we helped you organize and plan your wedding 27 years ago. We too have been married 27 years, and when a marriage is grounded in the Lord, it is a blessing. Please let us know if we can be of ANY help. Dean and Katherine: I'm here for you.###imported-begin##Jane Hogan Harrison###imported-end##
