“ My thoughts and prayers are with the three of you and that special granddaughter that was the light of Carole's life. I've had the privilege of working with Carole over the last ten years at Gwinnett County. She has been an absolute treasure to know and be around. She was quiet most of the time (unless you asked about her granddaughter), but had an infectious smile. The biggest concerns of her life were always her three precious children. You are all in my prayers.

“ We will truly miss our Carol. Her smile and laughter touched everyone. We will hold on to our sweet memories of family reunions and good times (and her fish stories). We know we will all be together soon, this was only a temporary home for Carol. She is now watching over the ones she loves. God's arms are around her, loving her in peace and joy and wholeness. We love you Carol. We will cling to your sweet memories.##imported-begin##Arlene L. Adelsheimer##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers got out to Ms. Boyd. I'm a co-worker with her son Jeremy and have quickly become a close friend. I really feel selfish saying that I was never able to meet Ms. Boyd, but I'm sure I will one day in the Best of all Places. If Jeremy is anything like her, she was terrific. God Bless.##imported-begin##Michael Midgett##imported-end##
