“ Aunt Carolyn had such a joyful spirit. I will miss her sense of humor, talent for cooking, and her realistic perspective on so many things. I will cherish the memories created during our many Sharp get togethers. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. Sending yall lots of love, Janice Sharp Britt and family.

“ Aunt Carolyn always knew how to make you laugh, and her dance moves were second to none. We'll miss getting the chance to swing by but are forever grateful for the memories we hold dear of her with Bill, Aunt Vivian, and Uncle Gene. Love and prayers to the whole Brantley family in this difficult time as all of her siblings, Uncle Bob, and our beloved Mom and Memaw have now reunited. Beth, Grant, and Austin Gibbons

“ Sad to see Mr & Mrs Brantley have passed. I pretty well grew up with the Brantleys & Sharps as a kid playing army at the Brantleys house. Running over to see the Sharp family too. Thousands of memories, some of the best days of my life, Bobby, Terry, Paula, James, little Tom and his red push car. May the Lord welcome Mrs. Brantley home. Mark McCullough- Loganville

“ Aunt Carolyn is no longer hurting but is now in Heaven with our mom and dad and Uncle Bob and loved ones gone on before. We enjoyed our visits with Aunt Carolyn and have precious memories of the past. We loved to go over to Aunt Carolyn's and Uncle Bobs house. Aunt Carolyn was one of the best cooks and we never left empty handed without a treat or fresh produce from Uncle Bobs Garden. We will miss Aunt Carolyn but our memories of Aunt Carolyn and Uncle Bob will last forever. Our hearts and prayers are with you all we love you all Barry and Donna and Family.

“ Aunt Carolyn you were more than just a Aunt to me. I was so lucky to have grown up next to you. Growing up I would find a reason to stay at your house when your cooking or making your famous Peanut Brittle. You treated me like I was one your own when I was around. I will always remember those days and will really miss you. Your Nephew,
Phillip
