“ Mary . . . I know your family and your Mom have had a long uphill battle with your Mom's health; and while losing her is devastating, it is also comforting to know that she is with our Lord and is no longer suffering or in pain. Please know that my prayers are with you, your family and all of the friends and care-givers who have been there to help in your family's time of need. I pray for joy, peace and comfort in the midst of your sorrow.
