“ Carolyn Nash was one of the kindest people I've ever met. She was a gentle soul that was kind to everyone she met. Even though I was a friend of her daughter-in-law, she treated me like family. I remember being thankful that, as she became older and unable to drive, her son and daughter-in-law (Hujoe and Debbie) took her to church, and she was able to continue to get to know the Lord and to get to serve others, which was her passion. I pray the Lord bless all those who honored her as a mother and grandmother, which is very pleasing to the Lord. She is now free of all the worries of this life and receiving her reward for having relied on the Lord and loved her family with her whole heart. Tammy Osier
