“ Aunt Carolyn was a joy to be around and talk to. Her smile was always there and she had an infectious laugh you couldn't help but to laugh along with. I have heard her stories about her childhood and enjoyed hearing the history of the JC Britt Family. She and I shared the same birth date (not the same year though) and also the love for her sister, my mom, Doris. She reminds me of my mom (my mom was the oldest of her sisters and Carolyn was the youngest) and grandpa Britt, her dad. He was funny and joyful to be around and so was Carolyn. I will miss her so very much but I know God's taking excellent care of her. Till we meet again! Love you, Gail

“ Aunt Carolyn took Phyllis and I in as one of her own when daddy passed always making sure that we knew what was going on in our Britt family. She and Uncle Barron often came to Phyllis' house to celebrate our immediate family Christmas gatherings. She offered her opinion no holes barred.... had to respect that! She will be missed!

I just found out through Facebook about Grandma Osborne. Im sad but rejoicing knowing she is with the Lord. She set a great example of how to be kind and gracious. I had planned a visit with her to thank her and Grandpa for all the things they did for me and my grandkids and that i loved them. They always accepted me as family and I will remember and cherish the time we spent together.
