Lynn and Wayne brought Carolyn to our Sunday School class at Canton First Baptist many times, and each time she was so sweet, positive never complaining if she had pain or health issues, and always a blessing to all of us. I loved seeing her and being around her. I know she is in a better place with no pain or sickness. Rich Elwell

“ May you find peace in knowing Carolyn is tending the most beautiful garden of all. Her smile lit up the room. I am happy to have shared garden club moments with her.

“ I am so thankful to Lynn and Wayne for bringing Carolyn with them many times to our Sunday School class at Canton First Baptist. Our class grew to love Carolyn and have missed her sweet smiling face since her bodily decline. I know she is with Jesus and now has a more radiant smile than ever before! Our prayers are for peace and Divine comfort for her family.

“As long as her health permitted Carolyn attended the Joyful Sunday School class at Canton First Baptist Church. It was always a pleasure to see her smiling face as I taught the lesson. Even more I looked forward to the kiss she always gave me after the lesson. Even though she may be absent from us, Martha and I will always hold sweet memories of that sweet woman.
