“ Carolyn,
It was such a pleasure to have gotten to know you. I just wished that it could have been a lot longer. You were a very special lady and everyone who knew you thought so. I know you finally brought some smiles to my daddy's face(Billy Cain) since he has known you. And, my daughter Kinsey who seldomly takes well to people really has grown to love you. You will be deeply missed by me and my family. We love you dearly. I know this will be a rough road for Michael but, he will just have to take it one day at a time. Please tell my mom (Virginia) hello for me. I know she is one of the angels in heaven. Rest in peace my dear. I love you Tam.##imported-begin##Tammie Cain Langford##imported-end##

“ The last words you told me were, "I love you"! and I'll always remember them. You'll have angles in Heaven to welcome you who love you very much so I won't worry about you. James, Jimmy, Larry, Pauline, etc, etc. I want to express special thanks to Billy Crane for his kindness and devotion during your last several months here and for him being at your side during your departure. Special thanks to Lynn, also. Carol never mentioned your last name but I know you always included her in gatherings you had.
Love ya, Billie##imported-begin##Billie Mullis##imported-end##
