“ So sorry to hear about Catherine. Out thoughts and prayers are with you all. I remember so well her beautiful voice and the many times I heard her sing at Shady Grove Baptist Church. The solos and as a quartet with Arnold, Louise and Leroy. I miss those days as I know you do. I know she is in that heavenly choir leading the soprano section. God bless each of you.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you with the loss of Catherine. May you find comfort and love from family and friends as we all share your grief. The memories all of you shared with Catherine will become even more treasured and valued as time passes and it will be those memories that will keep her legacy alive for all of you.. Catherine had a way of touching the hearts of all she loved and met.

When someone we love dies, God hides a smile in every memory and hope in every tear.

"Prayers for Life".
