“ We met sweet Cathy and Lee many, many years ago on a cruise at dinner. We were fast friends and sailed together ever since - 23 plus years. We became family. And even though we live in NY, distance never mattered. We spoke on the phone very often. Our hearts are broken but are so very happy our life paths crossed those many years ago and she is reunited with the love of her life, Lee. They were made for each other, soul mates. Rest in the arms of Jesus sweet Cathy. Until we meet again and book that next cruise in heaven... love you and your sweet heart ❤️.

“ My heart is totally broken, although I know Cathy is rejoicing with Lee tonight as I've just learned of her passing. Cathy & I shared so many special moments in our 39 yrs as best friends. We've shared laughter & tears. I have yet to know anyone else fitting to be a friend even close to the BFF status we shared. We met when her car broke down in 1986 in front of video store I managed & i had someone to come to get rescue. She became a part time worker following year & worked up to the week she & Lee married & she moved to Georgia. Cathy like myself loved people & quick to make friends. She loved her family & really loved her nephews & great nephews. She loved my 6 grandkids so much also, especially Cheyenne because she went with me quite a bit to Georgia for excursions with Lee & Cathy. We took Chy to Braves games, Cabbage Patch Babyland 2000 & Disney World in 2002 & we all had the best times. We truly cared for each other like sisters & never in all our years did we have any cross words or I'll fate. She was a true blessing to anyone who had the pleasure of knowing her. I am going to miss you so very much my Cathy. I know God called you to be with Lee & you are well now is the Heavenly home. I love you both & you'll never be forgotten!!!

Condolences to Chris & Angela, Adam, Brandon, & Cameron & all family & friends.

Praying for you all
