“ As nieces we loved visiting Granny cause Celia often made it more fun and interesting! But one of my favorite memories occurred only a few years ago when she and Frances joined Mom at Crescent Beach. Celia wanted to fish more than anything! I took her to her to the beach, baited her line, and she hooked a large Flounder. No one could believe it.....especially her! Her smile was so contagious that day it filled me with joy.

“ Dear Bowman Family, When I think of sweet Celia I see in my head the most precious, frail and beautiful lady. She was always the same---ladylike, and oh so sweet. I only knew her 17 years but treasured spending time with her. My thoughts and prayers are with you
