“ To Amanda.. and Chads entire family. I cannot express how sorry I am for the loss you have suffered. I will always remember him as funloving and caring. He found such great happiness during his short time here on earth...I think the stars will shine a little brighter now that he is in heaven. I am not able to be there today to honor his memory but please know he is on my mind and in my heart. I sat down at 2:00 today and watched the video tribute made in his memory. It brought joy to my heart and tears to my eyes to see the photos of him as a child with his mom, dad and sister and those of him as a young man so much in love with his wife. I hope you all find comfort in your memories of him and find peace knowing you will one day be together again for all eternity. Love to you all. “ Dear Lisa,
We are so very sorry to hear about Chad! What a shock to get this news - he was so young. You had told me that he was out of remission, but I had no idea how sick he was.

Please convey our sincere condolences to his wife and know you are all in our prayers.

“ Chad, you touched so many during the short period you were with us. I recall you as a teenager, playing drums in the Life Teen Band at Corpus Christi. Your energy and innocence, the intensity of your commitment knew no bounds. I had not heard from you for several years once I moved from Snellville back to Conyers, and I was deeply saddened to find that you had passed. Dude! May you find the everlasting peace that we all dream about. God bless you and your family.###imported-begin##Tim Walden###imported-end##
