

Charles Edward "Ed" Fossler

October 21, 1933 - January 18, 2024

FOSSLER - Charles Edward "Ed" Fossler, age 90 of Dacula, GA, passed away on Thursday, January 18, 2024. No services are scheduled at this time. Ed was the owner of "Fossler Drilling". He was an active member of the Church of Christ his entire life. Ed was always giving support and helping when and where he could. He taught many Bible classes and was an encouragement to others. His final place of worship was at the Church of Christ in Lawrenceville. Ed was a hard worker his whole life and a master of "fixing things", whatever it was. Although his career was drilling holes for hydrolic elevators, very physically demanding work, he and his wife, Ruby, also lived on a small farm in Fort Lauderdale where they raised their daughter, along with cows, horses, chickens, and goats. They retired to the Gwinnett area to be near their only child, her husband and their grandchild. Eventually they lived on a small farm in Dacula for many years, riding horses and raising miniature spotted goats with his wife. He rode Tennessee walking horses with his wife into his late 70's. He was a lover of animals and especially cats. Ed loved outdoor activities, canoeing, boating, nature, shooting and truly, he simply loved to work and putter. He was happiest with a project or something to weld or repair. He will be missed by so many, especially his family. Ed was preceded in death by his wife, Ruby (Schmid) Fossler. He is survived by his daughter and son-in-law, Renee and Mark Rogers of Snellville, GA; granddaughter and grandson-in-law, Abby and Clarke Baena; several nieces and nephews; numerous family and friends. I will always be grateful that God caused our paths to cross many years ago at Lawrenceville Church of Christ. What a loving, fun couple they were. They were great examples of what expects of His people. They walked the talk. I'll remember them always.

“ Mr. Edward & his wife Ruby boarded their horses with me for a period of time. One day they asked if Mr. Edward could hang a ceiling fan in Duncan's" stall? I said sure & Mr. Edward hung the fan for the horse. He was always doing projects around the barn to help put. Both of them were Awesome riders going on trail rides whenever possible. They were kind & caring people.

“ When I think of Edward, I cannot help but think of Ruby too. They were always together! As I think about his (their) passing, it can be summarized in 4 words - home, humor, honor, heaven. You were always welcome in their home. Humor and banter between and with the two of them was abundant. Never a dull moment! They always took great honor in taking care of each other (and others). It wasn't a burden to them. And Heaven was always the centerpiece. No matter what was happening (good or bad), it was always backdropped by living in hope of heaven.

They were a blessing to so many and I am blessed to be among that number. When I think of them, it will be with a smile and a tear. Sad that they are gone, but happy that they live on with the Lord and through us!
