“ Charlie, Frank and me rode together to work at Western Electric in the 70'S and 80's. I especially remember that he got a new brown Chevy pick-up and sure was a stickler for keeping it clean...." DON'T USE THE ASH TRAY, DON'T OPEN THE SIDE WINDOWS..MAN, I HAVE TO WASH THIS DIRTY TRUCK TODAY". Charlie was a lot of fun to pick at and he sure could come back with something or other. He could have been on T.V. with his impersonations of people. You know what I mean Debbie? What I remember the most was how much he loved his family. How he wanted to take care of them and be a good example for his kids.
