

Charles Carson Harkins, Jr.

September 25, 2012

Charles Carson Harkins, Jr. passed away on Tuesday, September 25, 2012. He was born in Atlanta, Georgia on October 4, 1944 and moved with his family to Montgomery, AL in 1958 where he spent the rest of his life. Charles graduated from Sidney Lanier High School in 1963 and attended Troy State University and Auburn University, Montgomery. He retired from the Alabama Department of Education after more than 30 years of service. He was a devoted member of Trinity Presbyterian Church since 1958 and served as president of his Sunday School Class. Charles was an enthusiastic world traveler and enjoyed bowling, baseball, music, movies and discussing politics. Charles was preceded in death by his parents, Charles C. and Verlon Johnson Harkins, and his nephew, Jon Christopher Harkins. Charles is survived by his brother Jon David Harkins (Rebecca) of Tampa, FL; a niece Jennifer Harkins Dubrawski (John) and their two sons Christopher Kai and Taj Pierce, all of Aliso Viejo, CA; 2 uncles, Harold Johnson and Clark Johnson, both of Lawrenceville, GA; and many loving cousins. Particular thanks go to Charles friends, Coleman Yarbrough, Donald Reed and Linda Till, for their dedication to Charles throughout his illness. The family also deeply appreciates the staff of Elmcroft at Halcyon Assisted Living Facility for their kind and thoughtful care of Charles over the past year. Funeral Services will be held at 2 pm on Monday, October 1 at Trinity Presbyterian Church in Montgomery, AL. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service in the Westminster Room of the church. Additionally, a visitation will be held at 1 pm on Wednesday, October 3

“ I attended school with Charles in the 7th grade. He was one of the smartest people I ever knew. We were really good friends. I lost contact after his family moved, but often wondered about Charles. I am saddened that he passed without us reconnecting.##imported-begin##Phil Burgess##imported-end##
